New recruit for CBRE Hotels in Queensland

Brisbane, QLD (23 July 2008)

CBRE Hotels has recruited highly regarded hotel real estate professional Theo Clark to head its Queensland agency business.

Mr Clark has more than 20 years experience in the hotel and leisure industries in Australia, the South Pacific and Europe.

Trained as a commercial and hotel & leisure valuer, Mr Clark has worked for both CBRE and Jones Lang LaSalle Hotels. He moved into the sales and marketing of hotel and leisure real estate in the early 1990's at CBRE Hotels Sydney before transitioning this role to London.

In addition, Mr Clark has over 10 years direct operational experience through the ownership of a UK based ski accommodation business servicing the French Alps.

Prior to more recently rejoining CBRE Hotels, Mr Clark operated his own property consulting business.

CBRE Hotels Regional Director Rob Cross said Mr Clark brought with him a wealth of industry knowledge and his appointment would further strengthen CBRE Hotels' foothold in Queensland, the largest tourism market in Australia.

At the present time CBRE Hotels has over $250 million worth of Hotel & Leisure real estate under offer in Queensland including high profile properties such as the Royal Pines Resort, Seahaven at Noosa and Lindeman Island.

Based in CBRE's Brisbane office, Mr Clark will work closely with George Nicholas Director of CBRE Hotels based in Sydney and the other CBRE offices in Cairns, Townsville, the Sunshine Coast and the Gold Coast in the marketing and sale of major hotel, resort, development and mixed leisure assets.
